The 2004 calendar features The Gospels in Glass: The Stained Glass Windows in Saint Bernadette Church, Silver Spring, Maryland. Each month has a beautiful photo of a different stained glass window from January's Epiphany through December's Nativity.

Each month has a dialogue question for each day of the month plus additional questions for Family Dialogue, Religious Dialogue, Dialogue questions to share between a couple and a priest or religious plus four added questions just in case you prefer one of them to the question for the day.

In the back of the calendar there is a tear out page that has a feeling words list on one side and dialogue tips on the other. The page is designed so each spouse can have their own list.

The calendar also includes a Handbook for Prayer Couples and a Weekend Prayer Schedule that list specific ideas of what to pray for relating to the presentations being given during the times of each day of the Weekend.

The calendar crew, self-dubbed the "Bakers dirty half dozen", have out done themselves in the design of the 2004 calendar. It is a calendar that anyone will be proud to display in their homes as well as being a useful tool to support dialogue and Worldwide Marriage Encounter.

Ask your local area leadership or one of the presenting teams from your Weekend how you can get a copy of this wonderfully done calendar.
