

Electronic Resources For Encountered Couples

If you checked the “Links” hot button on the eMatrimony home page, and did not find a link to a resource you are in search of, try:

This link takes you to the Electronic Resource Library Structure Pillar listing of Electronic Resources For Encounter Couples. Links from this site include the familiar National WWME Website, World Marriage Day and World Priest Day. But, the site also includes links to a Marriage Encounter Discussion Group, A Worldwide Prayer Vigil site, and some unique ways of developing dialogue questions using sites that have marriage quotes or “How Well Do You Know Your Spouse” statements. Check them out and enjoy.
